(D) HIKE NOTICE - Day Hiking in Vermont Leader - Collins Chew
(Scheduled August 6-10, 1985) The Appalachian Trail Conference will be held August 3-5, 1985, at Green Mountain College in Poultney, Vermont. Many workshops, exhibits, and programs will make that an interesting weekend. I plan to lead a series of day hikes in Southern Vermont during the rest of the week. We will probably hike the 60 miles from Manchester Center to Mt. Greylock, Massachusetts. The AT-Long Trail through this area will be delightful. For several evenings we will stay at Green Mountain College for bed, meals, and interesting slide show programs provided by the Green Mountain Club. The schedule will be flexible with some alternate hikes or sightseeing trips possible. Conference registration information has not been published yet. If interested, call Collins Chew at 239-6237 or return notice.
